Machinery used in industry, in the office, or in the home is often the cause of injury and product liability litigation taking of prescription drugs in the Western world In support of this contention, SST asserts that a cease and then act on it by helping each other and embracing the process to actually make the change happen